BATON ROUGE, Louisiana (4/6/2021) – The East Baton Rouge Council on Aging (EBRCOA) and Gulf Coast Housing Partnership (GCHP) are excited to announce the successful closing of the Lotus Village Senior Living Community transaction. Once construction begins, the project is slated to be completed within 14 months. EBRCOA is committed to serving the needs of the seniors and at the moment this is a dire need. We are excited to serve as pioneers in providing services to the aged community and we strive to continue to raise the bar. Lotus Village is a huge step in that direction and I am honored to be a facilitator as this vision comes to fruition,” stated Tasha Clark-Amar, CEO of EBRCOA.

EBRCOA is pursuing additional partnerships and sponsorships for infrastructure enhancements for Lotus Village. According to the project plan, Lotus Village will include a Geriatric Fitness Center, a full-service grocery market, relaxing walking paths and gardens.

“We appreciate the support of our funding partners, and that of Mayor Broome and her team who have made this project possible,” said Kathy Laborde, GCHP President and CEO. “Lotus Village Senior Living Community furthers the investment GCHP and its partners have made in Mid-City.
